

Kelsey Harstad is a mother of a 4th grade daughter and 1st grade son and has been a member of the GSLS community since her daughter started kindergarten and son in the 2's preschool program. Kelsey is a Senior Vice President for a boutique real estate investment firm based in NYC, Alder Capital. While juggling a full-time career with being an active mom and wife, she is also happy to volunteer her available time back to Good Shepherd. Kelsey views GSLS as an extremely special place that offers a challenging educational curriculum and hands-on/experiential learning environment that develops children into socially minded, well-rounded, leaders in our community. Kelsey brings a business mindset to the School Board due to her finance and accounting background and, having been raised in a family where her dad was a public-school teacher for 40 years, she understands many of the needs of teachers. In her spare time, Kelsey also enjoys being her kids' #1 fan in all of their sports (baseball, basketball, golf, tennis, volleyball, soccer, skiing), participating in her daughter's Girl Scouts troop meetings/events, attending church with her family at GSLC, and helping to lead her company's non-profit entity, the Alder Community Foundation.
